remain there. OSWALD not granted Soviet citizenship. OSWALD lived and employed Minsk and KGB Minsk requested only to "passively" observe his activities. After assassination, OSWALD file from Minsk indicated that from date of OSWALD's arrival in USSR until departure, KGB had no personal contact with OSWALD and had not attempted to utilize him in any manner. NOSENKO stated that OSWALD received no training or assignments from any other Soviet intelligence organizations. OSWALD had access to gun which he used to hunt game with fellow employees; was poor shot. KGB had no plans to contact either OSWALD or MARINA in U. S. NOSENKO knew of no Cuban involvement in the assassination; stated MARINA OSWALD not agent of KGB.
